

38th National Adapted Physical Education Conference - Asilomar, Pacific Grove, CA - November 19-21, 2009

THU	Merrill Hall	Fred Farr	Nautilus	Scripps	Marlin	Triton
1:00 - 5:00						SCAPE Meeting
7:30 - 8:30	Jennifer Rawlings Keynote Speaker	Jennifer Rawlings, an internationally known and beloved stand-up comedienne and entertainer, is also a passionate and out-spoken advocate for the disabled. After spending multiple years traveling with the USO and entertaining American troops in Iraq and Afghanistan, Rawlings has seen and worked with hundreds of newly disabled U.S. military members. Sharing funny, touching, and challenging stories of her experiences with these newly-disabled Americans, Rawlings will relate to conference attendees how and what adapted physical educators, researchers and general community members may do to help prepare our disabled troops to successfully re-train and re-enter society.
8:30 - 9:30	Outdoor social and campfire sing-along featuring guitarist Seth James
	500	138	100	58	40	40
FRI	Merrill Hall	Fred Farr	Nautilus	Scripps	Marlin	Triton
9:00 - 10:00	SPORTIME Adapted PE Activity Guides Lessons: Preschool/Elementary Evelyn Gonzales John Colendich Evergreen SD, San Jose	Social Dance for Individuals with Disabilities Cathy Smith Cobb County Schools Marietta, GA	A Community Based Exercise Program for Frail Elderly Ruth Haynes the West Valley, DeAnza Foothill Community College, CA	Foam Wars J. Kevin Taylor, PhD Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo, CA	Without Embarrassment: Inclusion Strategies for Students with Hidden Disabilities in Physical Education Lori Reich Barry Lavay CSU, Long Beach	Yoga Basics Beth Shaw Yoga Fit
10:20 - 11:30	The High Tops Performance Group Sandra Garcia	So I Tested My Student...What Next? Using The DEVPRO Motor Skills Test And Task Analyses Carol Kafohl	Masqutova Method-Reflexes Jocelyn Pare Diane Whiteside, PT Alameda, CA	Wii-Be-Fit J. Kevin Taylor, PhD Cal Poly San Luis Obispo, CA	Creative Ways to Integrate Adapted Fitness into Your APE Program Taeyou Jung, PhD Center of Achievement CSU, Northridge, CA	Mainstream APE into Secondary GPE Tony Kurtz San Diego Unified, CA
12:00	Lunch - Lunch - Lunch
1:30 - 2:45	Meeting Sensory Needs in Physical Education* Teri de Jong St Louis School, Tyler, TX	Wii and More Crazy Ideas Anna Roberts Cobb County Schools Kennesaw, GA	Flat Water Paddling for Individuals with Developmental Disabilities Terri Todd & Jacque Medina CSU, Chico, CA	Time Shifts in Leisure, Recreation and Fitness Jesse Dixon San Diego State University, CA	Open Source, Freeware, and Demo Software For Adapted P.E. and Therapeutic Recreation Jerry Harris Los Angeles County Office of Education, CA	Activities that Incorporate Visual Supports in Physical Education Kim Morton Motor Assessment Specialist Kathy Omoto, APE Teacher Las Vegas, NV
3:10 - 4:30	Yoga for Seniors Beth Shaw Yoga Fit	Speech-Language and Adaptive Physical Education: Movement Enhancing Language for All Jim Elliott Spectrum School Glen Ellen, CA	Let's Go GeoCaching.. Geo-whatting? Roxanne Patin Pittsburg, CA	Teaching APE to Students with Visual Impairments Mary Norman Capistrano Unified, CA	Use of Additional Weights (cuffs) in Adapted Aquatics for People with Hemi Paresis Taeyou Jung, PhD Center of Achievement CSU, Northridge, CA	SCAPE Past Chairs' Reception (Invitation only) Cyndi Martinich

Pheobe Hearst	SAT	Merrill Hall	Fred Farr	Nautilus	Scripps	Marlin	Triton
University Coordinators' Meeting	9:00 - 10:00	Input Session: Revision of the Adapted Physical Education Guidelines Joanie Verderber, Ph.D. Kimble Morton, M.A. Perky Vetter, Ph.D.	Let's Go GeoCaching.. Geo-whatting? Roxanne Patin Pittsburg, CA	APEAS II Technical Support for the Performance Profile and eScoresheet software usage. Dan Cariaga AAPAR-APEAS Development Team, San Luis Obispo, CA	Without Embarrassment: Inclusion Strategies for Students with Hidden Disabilities in Physical Education Lori Reich Barry Lavay CSU, Long Beach, CA	Open Source, Freeware, and Demo Software For Adapted P.E. and Therapeutic Recreation Jerry Harris Los Angeles County Office of Education, CA	Content Referenced Assessment and Ecological Task Analysis Mike Rister Terri Rizzo, PhD CSU, San Bernardino, CA
Cracker Barrel Discussion: Adult Programs Pete Aufsesser, PhD San Diego State University, CA Jim Haynes DeAnza College, CA	10:20 - 11:30	SPORTIME Adapted PE Activity Guides Lessons: Middle School/Secondary Wendy Dodd Eastside UHSD, San Jose	Think Outside the Music Box Carrie Flint	JoyFitstix®: Shake up your workout - Fitness Fun for Everyone! Karen Joy Allen President and Inventor	Collaboration- Pushing Physical Activity into the Classroom Patti Ann Parobek Anthony Zeniuk Christopher Oldin	The Top 10 Issues Affecting Adapted Physical Education and Adapted Physical Activity Terri Rizzo, PhD CSU, San Bernardino, CA	Physiological Response to Adapted Cardiovascular Exercise in Individuals With Spinal Cord Injury Paul Godina Center of Achievement CSU, Northridge, CA
	12:00 - 2:00	SCAPE Awards Luncheon

Keynote Speaker - Thursday 7:30pm

Jennifer Rawlings

Jennifer Rawlings, an internationally known and beloved stand-up comedienne and entertainer, is also a passionate and out-spoken advocate for the disabled. After spending multiple years traveling with the USO and entertaining American troops in Iraq and Afghanistan, Rawlings has seen and worked with hundreds of newly disabled U.S. military members. Sharing funny, touching, and challenging stories of her experiences with these newly-disabled Americans, Rawlings will relate to conference attendees how and what adapted physical educators, researchers and general community members may do to help prepare our disabled troops to successfully re-train and re-enter society.

Camp with us at the ocean!

38th National Adapted Physical Education Conference

www.NAPEConference.org

Promoting Active, Healthy Lifestyles for All

Asilomar, Pacific Grove, California
November 19-21, 2009

Dan Cariaga
Conference Co-Director
San Luis Obispo COE

Peter Auffesser
Program Chair
San Diego State University

Nancy Megginson
Conference Co-Director
San Jose State University